What's On | June 2021

Shows

Feeling Good: Music to feed your soul

7.30pm, Saturday 12 June

Narrogin Town Hall

Tickets: $30 members / $33 concession / $36 adult / $180 table of 6 (Save up to $36)

Door sales: $40 per ticket

Enjoy a cabaret style night with an hour of music & dancing after the show!

Feeling Good is the new show from Sue Bluck's Quartet that affectionately highlights the lives and music of some of the world's favourite female piano-playing singers. The artists range from jazz greats Peggy Lee, Nina Simone and Diana Krall to pop diva Carole King and the sublime Norah Jones. With sophisticated cabaret styling Sue Bluck's Quartet brings to life the emotions and lifelong passions of these amazing women.

Indoigo Sand: Stories that give breath to the elements

5.30pm, Friday 18 June

Performing Arts Centre, Narrogin Senior High School

Tickets:

$5 child/student (ages 3+) | $15 adult

$25 family of 4 (1 adult & 3 children, or 2 adults & 2 children)

Come and immerse yourself in a sea of stories that will ebb and flow around you with intrigue, whimsy and magic. Listen to the tender heart of Tua the whale, the absurd conversation of the three raindrops and wonder at the ancient mysteries of seals and selkies.

These delightful traditional and original tales are performed with an evocative mix of storytelling, puppetry, acoustic music and visual imagery that will leave you with a taste of salt on your lips and a yearning for more. Let go and float on the incoming tide with Jenny Hill and Sandy McKendrick.

Perfect for children from 3 years of age and their parents. Perfect for school children. Perfect for people who still enjoy the sea and the life it gives.
