

enRICH Scholarship

FOR EMERGING ARTISTS

2022 Guidelines, Terms and Conditions

The enRICH Scholarship was established in 2020 in memory of Narrogin local, artist and mentor Joy Rich and in recognition of the support and encouragement she gave to local artists. The purpose of the Scholarship is to support emerging artists and creatives from the Narrogin region to develop their creative practice and present their work publicly.

This scholarship provides assistance towards the cost of:

- Mentoring from an established artist in your creative field
- Professional development via attendance at three artist development workshops run by Arts Narrogin
- Exhibiting or publicly presenting work, including space rental, documentation, promotion
- Material costs

Funding available

One individual will be awarded $2,000 (GST inclusive).

- $500 towards materials/equipment
- $1500 towards mentoring

Arts Narrogin will provide up to $1950 in-kind support in the following areas:

Workshop fees $150

Staff time $900

5. Applicants will be notified of their success by Thursday June 30 2022

Successful applicant requirements

Payment

Arts Narrogin will contact successful applicants and their mentors to request a Tax Invoice, or a Statement by Supplier if you do not have an ABN.

If the applicant is unable to provide either, under PAYG Arts Narrogin is required to withhold 46.5% of the Scholarship funds for the Australian Taxation Office.

Payment to successful applicants will be made after notification by direct transfer to the applicant/mentor's nominated bank account.

Acknowledgement

Successful applicants must include the following acknowledgement and the Arts Narrogin logo on all promotional or published material including project documentation, in hard copy or online.

This project was assisted by the enRICH Scholarship, established by Arts Narrogin and made possible by donations from the Narrogin community.

Availability

Successful applicants may be asked to make themselves available to the media by phone, email or in person following the announcement of the recipient. They will be asked to make themselves available to attend activities funded by the scholarship.

Acquittal

Successful applicants must submit a 250 word (maximum) acquittal, outlining the impact of the scholarship on their practice. This should be accompanied by three examples of documentation (e.g. invitation, advertisement, review, photographic documentation) within four weeks of completion. The project must be completed within 12 months. Grants must be expended in the manner outlined in the application unless prior written permission has been given by Arts Narrogin.

Reproduction of work

Arts Narrogin will request a limited non-exclusive copyright license to reproduce images of the project for promotion, acquittal and annual reporting purposes in the 12 months following the completion of the project.
